

Nodes represent characters from the series and edges represent relationships between characters.

